

WFDY-IUS - 44

2. IUS Membership Data

The following changes in IUS membership status since August 1956 also reflect the extent of successful IUS organizational activity in the target areas:

Eight

a. ~~Eight~~ student organizations have been admitted as full members of the IUS since August 1956. One is in the Soviet bloc (National Committee of Hungarian Student Organizations); One is in Latin America (Federation of the Central University of Venezuela); Three are in the Middle East (Association of Jordanian Students in the United Arab Republic, National Nepal/Federation of Students and the Union of Syrian Students); and the other ~~five~~ ^{three} are African (Federation of Students from Black Africa in France (FEANF) ~~the~~ ^{which} the Association of Togoland Students in France, ~~in~~ which in turn is also affiliated with FEANF) and the Khartoum University Student Union).

b. ^{COSEC-affiliated} Three student organizations have been admitted as associate members of the IUS since August 1956: General Union of Algerian Moslem Students (UGEMA), Ceylon University Students Federation; and the National Union of Moroccan Students (UNEM).

c. The Iraqi Students Association in Cairo was admitted to IUS consultative status at the Fifth IUS Congress in Peking, 4-13 ~~September~~ September 1958.

d. The following ~~two~~ ^{three} organizations are reported to be interested in affiliating with the IUS: the Makerere College Guild in Uganda, a new student federation for Malaya set up in Kuala Lumpur in March 1958 and the General Association of Martinique Students in Paris (AGEM) set up in April 1958.

e. Representatives of the following three student organizations are reported to have visited IUS Headquarters in May 1958, at which they discussed "cooperation with IUS", as well as the aims and activities of their organizations:

- Association of Students of Guadeloupe
- Association of Martinique Students
- Association of Guianese Students.

f. After the Hungarian Revolution, the Finnish and Icelandic National Unions of Students deaffiliated from the IUS. The latter did so specifically in protest against the IUS's failure to denounce Soviet armed intervention in Hungary.